

HAIFA TEREZIN KRAKÓW

The Annual International
Scientific Seminar

The Significance of the Holocaust for Contemporary Social Work

June 23, 2021
5 pm - 8 pm

UNIVERSITY OF HAIFA
COLLEGE OF POLYTECHNICS JIHLAVA
JAGIELLONIAN UNIVERSITY
INSTITUTE OF THERAPY AND SOCIAL EDUCATION – ASSOCIATION

The Annual International Scientific Seminar

The Significance of the Holocaust for Contemporary Social Work

June 23, 2021 5 pm - 8 pm
online

PROGRAM OF THE SEMINAR

Moderation:

Hubert Kaszyński - Institute of Sociology, Jagiellonian University, Poland

Introduction

Pnina Ron - School of Social Work, University of Haifa, Israel

What can social workers learn from the second generation's experience?

Olga Klepáčková, Martina Černá, Pavla Šlechtová

- Department of Social Work, College of Polytechnics Jihlava, Czech Republic

Legacy still alive: What can we learn from the social work in the Terezin ghetto?

Olga Maciejewska - Institute of Sociology, Jagiellonian University, Poland,

Julia Pawlikowska - Institute of Therapy and Social Education – Association, Poland

The axiological education in the field of difficult heritage. Krakow experiences.

Student voices:

Jakub Ćwięka, Maria Łapińska, Klementyna Rogalska-Trnka

- Institute of Sociology, Jagiellonian University, Poland

Open space for discussion

Summary

UNIVERSITY OF HAIFA

COLLEGE OF POLYTECHNICS JIHLAVA

JAGIELLONIAN UNIVERSITY

INSTITUTE OF THERAPY AND SOCIAL EDUCATION – ASSOCIATION